

Pfizer Admits mRNA Jabs Contain 'Nanobots' That Permanently Alters DNA

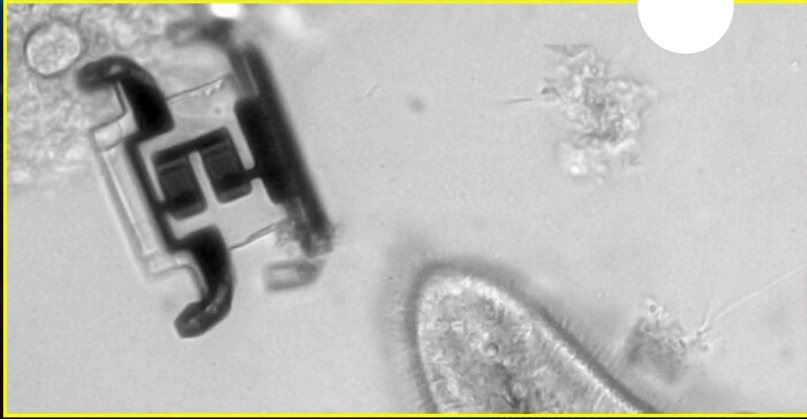

Fact checked

Independent researchers have been warning for years that Covid mRNA vaccines contain secret ingredients and now we have confirmation of the claim.

INJECTED WITH SECRET NANOBOTS'

A deep dive into Pfizer's murky history reveals they partnered with an Israeli to develop programmable nanorobots to be injected into people to alter their DNA, issue them with an IP address, and connect them to the internet.

This may sound like wild science fiction, but when you see the stone cold evidence that we have coming up for you, it will be clear that what sounded like a horror movie suddenly looks like a living nightmare for the vaccinated.

Are the vaccinated already walking, talking human cyborgs, fulfilling an as yet unknown function for the global elite – before they keel over and die at the flick of a switch?

That's the question that must be asked following our investigation which brings to light Pfizer's top-secret and disturbing pre-pandemic work to create programmable nanorobots to be secretly injected into people to alter their DNA and seize the ultimate form of control over humanity.

In 2015, Pfizer partnered with Bar-Ilan University in Israel who had been developing these programmable nanobots.

Pfizer partnering with Ido Bachelet on DNA nanorobots

📖 cancer, commercialization, DNA, future, life extension, medicine, nanorobotics, science

Pfizer is cooperating with the DNA robot laboratory managed by Prof. Ido Bachelet at Bar-Ilan University. Bachelet has developed a method of producing innovative DNA molecules with characteristics that can be used to "program" them to reach specific locations in the body and carry out pre-programmed operations there in response to stimulation from the body. This cooperation was revealed in a lecture by Pfizer president of worldwide research and development (WRD), portfolio strategy and investment committee chairman, and executive VP Mikael Dolstein at the IATI Biomed Conference in Tel Aviv being concluded today.

What was it that made Pfizer want to work with this university on their top-secret DNA nanorobot program?

Let's take a look at a 2013 presentation delivered by Bar-Ilan scientist Dr. Ido Bachelet to room of pharma executives demonstrating the programmable nanorobots under a microscope.

Here he explains that one syringe can hold "a thousand billion robots."

Remember, this presentation was delivered in 2013 meaning they have had this technology for over 10 years now. Why was it kept hidden from us?

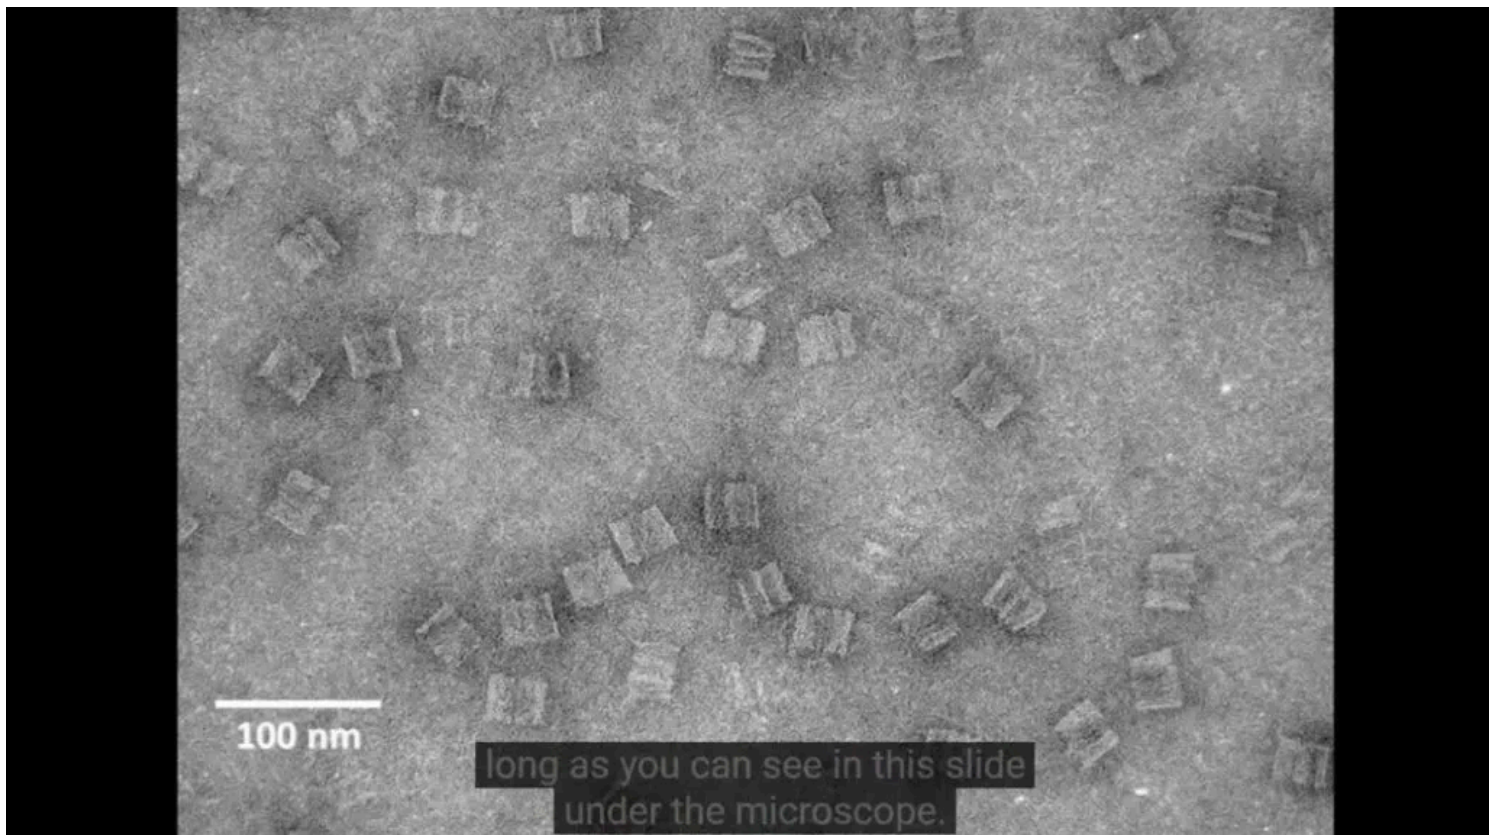

Perhaps because they always intended to use this technology secretly.

Let's take another look at what these nanorobots look like under a microscope.

Those who have been watching our previous videos will recognize that these nanorobots look exactly like the mysterious entities independent researchers have found in their investigations of the Covid mRNA injection contents under the microscope.

Many doctors, mainstream media and fact checkers have tried to convince us that these vaccine contents are nothing more than "salt crystals."

Now we know the truth. They are DNA nanorobots. We know this because we have uncovered evidence of paid-off scientists admitting it themselves.

So what are these nanorobots and why would Pfizer and Big Pharma want to secretly inject thousands of billions of them into unsuspecting human beings?

In his presentation, Bachelet bragged about how they can ensure they don't "lose control" of the nanorobots after they have been pumped inside human bodies.

As Bachelet explained, the "controller" is connected to the internet "like an Xbox." And the "controller actually links these nanobots to the network."

That's right. The nanorobots "have an actual IP address" and they can be "accessed" remotely.

Now, here is the kicker. As Bachelet confirmed, whoever is secretly controlling these DNA nanorobots can turn them on and off with the flick of a switch and "release payloads” into human bodies.

Hold on, payloads? Payloads of what?

As vaccinated people continue dying in unprecedented numbers across the globe, it is worth asking what these payloads contain.

Could the elite be controlling who dies and when, thanks to the DNA nanorobots they have quietly and deceitfully pumped into the bodies of billions of humans worldwide?

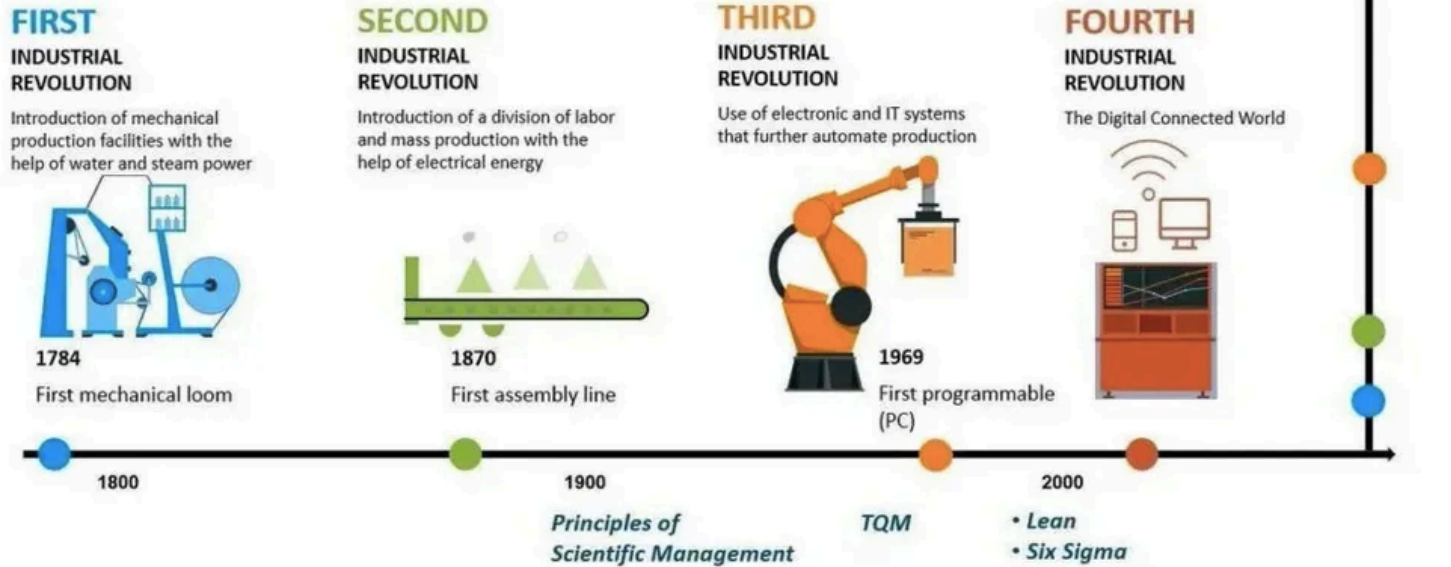

If you listen to what Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla and his cronies including Bill Gates have to say, the answer could not be clearer.

Pfizer's DNA nanorobots might sound nightmarish, but for those who have been paying attention they are nothing more than Klaus Schwab's 4th Industrial Revolution being put into action.

The 4th Industrial Revolution Is Upon Us.

FROM INDUSTRY 1.0 TO INDUSTRY 4.0

Globalist control freak Bill Gates has been working behind the scenes to computerize the human body for years. Did you know that Microsoft was granted “exclusive rights” to this ability of the body to act as a computer network?

Microsoft was awarded US Patent 6,754,472, which is titled: Method and apparatus for transmitting power and data using the human body.

Gates also holds another patent which he was granted before the pandemic, this one conveniently featuring the numbers 666.

I don't think anything else needs to be said. Do your own research and draw your own conclusions.

We don't have time to go into detail about these patents, but you can watch our previous videos which went into detail about the disturbing plans of Gates and the elite to intrude upon our bodies for their own benefit.

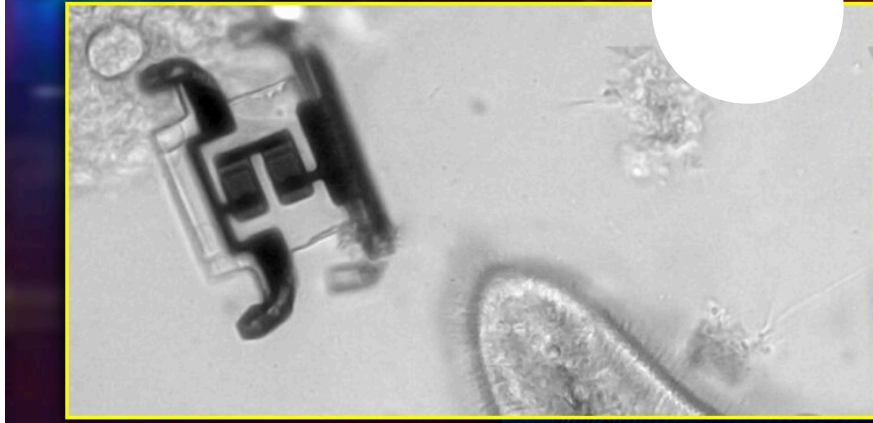

Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla is no stranger to the concept either.

SECRET NANOBOTS'

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. knew exactly what was going to happen because the global elite have been preparing for the plandemic for years. As he explains, they left their finger prints all over the crime scene.

For those who still don't believe their government would experiment on the people, it's worth learning about Tuskegee syphilis experiment, Operation Sea-Spray, and the various depraved MK-ULTRA experiments. For those who know where to look, the list is endless.

There is also the little known fact that the British government decided to randomly drop a nuclear bomb right next to 20,000 British soldiers just to see what would happen to them.

They don't teach you about this sick and vile experiment in the history books.
